Package 2: Painting by Artist Sheldon Draper

Sheldon Draper will paint, live, a 3'x5' Acrylic painting. Draper, born in 1995, grew up in Wichita, Kansas. Draper specializes in mixed media techniques which have developed as a result of academic training, independent study, and curiosity. In high school Draper became increasingly interested in art, this interest led him to pursue art on a collegiate level. Leading him to take art classes at Cowley Community College, and later on Emporia State University.

After college, he was able put more attention towards selling art online, designing t-shirts, doing commissions, and other artistic freelance work. After moving back to Wichita. Draper worked to get involved in the local arts scene. As a result, he's participated in various arts markets, has done live art at shows for local bands, and has had exhibitions at several galleries around town.

Draper is currently on Exhibit at Mark Arts through the Synthesis & Blues: Casey TZ Smith and Sheldon Draper, which closes July 20, 2024.
